

Dream catcher

An Exchange of Ideas with CHANCELLOR TOM JACKSON

CHANCELLOR TOM JACKSON INVITES YOU TO

A PANEL DISCUSSION ABOUT SOCIAL RESPONSIBILITY

FEATURED PANELLISTS:

Moderator: DAVID NEWHOUSE, chair of Indigenous Studies at Trent University

LUCINDA HAGE is a community volunteer and Trent University Alumni Award Recipient 2011 who worked as a career and academic counsellor at Fleming College for over 30 years. She is the founder of The Amigos Program and the Faith, Fellowship and Food group. She is a founding member of Peterborough Regional Health Centre's Healing and the Arts program.

DR. TOM JACKSON (HON) is the chancellor of Trent University. Appointed an officer of the Order of Canada in 2000 for his music and humanitarian work, he is well known to Canadians as an accomplished musician and actor dedicated to helping the less fortunate.

DR. KATHRYN NORLOCK is the Kenneth Mark Drain chair in Ethics at Trent University where she is a professor of philosophy and resident expert on the ethics of forgiveness. She writes and teaches on ethics, feminist philosophy, environmental philosophy and sociopolitical issues. She is the author of Forgiveness from a Feminist Perspective.

DR. ASAF ZOHAR is the chair of both the Business Administration and M.A. Sustainability Studies programs at Trent University where he has provided leadership in introducing sustainability into both undergraduate and graduate programs. He has facilitated numerous academic and executive development programs in Canada, the Middle East, and the U.S. on sustainable, self-organization.

FEBRUARY 13, 2012
12 P.M. - 2 P.M.

PETER GZOWSKI COLLEGE, ROOM 117

For more information, please contact Cindy Turnbull, cindyturnbull@trentu.ca or 705-748-1011 ext. 7246

ALL ARE WELCOME TO THIS FREE AND PUBLIC EVENT

TRENT
UNIVERSITY

