

Democracy. Power. Justice.

 Explore www.trentu.ca/politics

Politics. Trent. You.

Politics encompasses everything we do, including the ways in which we influence one another, acquire and maintain power, make collective decisions and advance social change. While fully committed to critical thinking and intellectual discipline, our approach is to make sense of the world in ways that are directly relevant to the human experience and the ideas and actions that shape political life.

Why Trent?

- A strategic focus on Global Politics, Canadian Politics and Political Theory
- Focused and interactive student-professor relationships
- An active student role in the functioning and governance of the Department
- Partnership with local agencies and the Trent Centre for Community-Based Education
- Valuable internship opportunities
- Recognition through scholarships and prizes

To view this document in an accessible format, please visit www.trentu.ca

Degree Opportunities

Bachelor of Arts (General)

Bachelor of Arts (Honours)

Bachelor of Arts (Emphasis in Law and Policy)

Masters in Arts in Theory, Culture and Politics

Career Conscious

Your degree in Politics can lead to a diversity of career opportunities including law, government, public administration, public policy, NGOs, communications, media, public relations, journalism, international development, diplomacy, business, social work, teaching and research.