SOCCER

Mens   | Womens

Often referenced as the international language, soccer – or 'the beautiful game' – has the power to bring people together. At Trent, significant investments have been made in the varsity soccer program to ensure that the University continues to attract exceptional student-athletes from around the world. With the Trent soccer program, our student-athletes stay in competitive shape all year round, with both men's and women's varsity teams competing in the outdoor OUA league and training during the winter months.

LEVEL UP

Excalibur High Performance Development

As a top athletics program, Trent Excalibur draws talent to represent the green and white in each of our six high performance varsity programs and three competitive student clubs.

We invest in programs, services and facilities to support the development of our student-athletes, guiding them towards success in the classroom, on the field, on the court, on the water and on the ice.

“The commitment and technical expertise of our Trent Excalibur coaches is the key to our development plan and our varsity program success.

The coaches truly become mentors that encourage our student-athletes to accomplish their dreams – both in academics and in sport. Their leadership is central to Trent’s reputation as a hub for high-performance sport.”

Deborah Bright-Brundle, director, Athletics and Recreation at Trent University

Trent’s successful varsity men’s lacrosse program is one of the many examples of how our Excalibur student-athletes can chart their high-performance pathway. Over just a few short years, nine Excalibur players, past and present, have competed with the National Lacrosse League (NLL), including 2020 draft selections, Curtis Conley (3rd round, 40th overall by the Colorado Mammoth) and Curtis Romanchych (4th round, 67th overall by the Toronto Rock).

“We try to provide the best lacrosse program that we can, be creative and put the best on-field product forward. We need good people involved and that’s what we focus on the most.”

Mark Farthing, varsity men’s lacrosse head coach
