Hiring a Co-op Student on Campus

Benefits of Hiring a Co-op Student

Access a talent pool who are ready to support on-campus services, support and research.

The co-op program provides support to both students and supervisors to meet the needs of your department.

Co-op Process

Key Facts

- Hired and paid by the department
- Full-time, roughly 35 hours/week
- 4-, 8-, and 12-month co-op work terms available (depending on program)
- Students can work in existing positions
- Departments are under no obligation to interview or hire if the position is posted on the Co-op Job Board

Funding Information

Students can work in roles funded by any source including:

- Department funds
- Trent Student Work Experience Program (TSWEP) → 35 hours/week (summer term)
- Partial reimbursement from the Trent Work Study Program (TWSP) → 10 hours/week (fall and winter terms)
- Federal or private grants (if allowed by the funder)
