

Jude Doe

MedicalVille ON A1B 2C3
(555) 123-4567
judedoe@trentu.ca

OBJECTIVE

Summer lab assistant position with ABC Health Services Laboratory engaging in anatomical and physiological research, evaluation, and data analysis.

HIGHLIGHT OF QUALIFICATIONS

- Experienced in lab standards, record-keeping, and data analysis
- Thorough knowledge of research steps and the Scientific Method
- Understanding of the medical field and anatomical terms
- Teamwork skills acquired through volunteer management and assistant positions
- Motivation and organization demonstrated through leading a team of volunteers

EDUCATION

Bachelor of Science: Biomedical Science 2015-Present

- Trent University, Peterborough ON

Relevant Courses:

- Pharmacology
- Research Design and Data Analysis
- Epidemiology
- Placement with Trillium Gift of Life Network
 - Developed a thorough understanding for the procedures involved in organ transplantation, tissue donation, and end of life processes
 - Over 20 hours of experience in observing an active operating room

RELEVANT EXPERIENCE

Research Assistant, Trent University Summer 2017

- Collected data in a lab and used computer programs to analyze and generate reports
- Compiled and manipulated data in computer programs such as Microsoft Excel and Word
- Ensured that the lab and equipment was organized and in proper working order
- Completed small projects with minimal supervision
- Comprehensive knowledge of lab protocol, safety processes, and equipment's standard operating procedures

Laboratory Experience, Trent University Coursework 2015-Present

- Over 300 hours of laboratory experience in analytical, physiological, and anatomical labs
- Analyzed human anatomical samples to identify abnormalities and unique characteristics
- Summarized findings and developed detailed reports of lab work

OTHER WORK EXPERIENCE

Camp Counsellor, Camp Fun Summer 2015, 2016

VOLUNTEER EXPERIENCE

Post Discharge Phone Calls, Peterborough Regional Health Centre 2016-Present

- Conducted phone calls to patients recently discharged from hospital services gathering both quantitative and qualitative data to be analyzed
- Excelled in the medical environment with a strong organizational understanding of the medicinal work setting

In-Community Volunteer, Canadian Blood Services 2015-2017

- Contributed to the awareness and advertising of Canadian Blood Services in Peterborough
- Greeted and interacted with members of the public while organizing documentation and helping with effective running of the program

Pre-Medical Society President, Trent University 2017-Present

- Facilitates weekly meetings and team building initiatives with student team
- Oversee the ongoing operations, events, and activities of the Society to keep the organization efficient, successful, and engaging to students
- Responsible for the public image, financial records, and professionalism of the Society

Pre-Medical Society Events and Volunteer Coordinator, Trent University 2016-2017

- Organized and planned events to support students and connected students to medical field career resources
- Managed, coordinated, and scheduled over twenty volunteers to effectively administer 10 events over the course of the year

CERTIFICATIONS AND TRAINING

- Standard First Aid with CPR-C Certification 2018
- SafeTalk Suicide Prevention Training 2017
- AODA Training 2016
- WHMIS Training 2016

ACADEMIC ACHIEVEMENTS

Dean's Honour Roll 2015-2018

- Annual award for attaining an average over 80%

NSERC Scholarship 2018

- Received an Undergraduate Student Research Award to gain experience in the human anatomical research field

References Available