CONVOCATION 2026: ONWARD, WITH PURPOSE

Today is yours, graduates.

As you don your academic regalia and cross the convocation stage, take a moment to reflect on the path that brought you here. Think about the questions that first inspired you, the moments that shaped your perspective, and the people who encouraged you to keep going when the way forward felt uncertain.

The credential you receive today represents a notable academic achievement – something to celebrate – and more! It reflects the persistence it took to continue through challenges and the confidence that you developed through your experiences.

At Trent, education has never been confined to a classroom. It is formed through conversation and pursuing your curiosity about the world around us. During your time here, you have learned how to approach complexity with thoughtfulness and how to bring care and understanding to the communities you are a part of. Those qualities will matter wherever your path leads next.

No one arrives at this day alone. Faculty, staff, family, friends, mentors, and classmates have all helped shape this moment. Their encouragement has carried you forward, just as your presence has helped strengthen the Trent community in return. At Trent, we stand out by standing closer, and the relationships you have formed here will remain part of your story long after today.

Convocation is not a conclusion to your connection with Trent. It is a milestone that marks how far you have come and the beginning of what you will now contribute beyond our campuses. The future ahead will ask for people who can listen carefully, think creatively and constructively, and act with purpose. We believe you are ready for that responsibility.

Today, celebrate what you have achieved. Celebrate the person you have become. And step forward knowing that you will always be part of the Trent community.

Congratulations!

Dr. Cathy Bruce

President & Vice Chancellor

A PARTING MESSAGE FROM YOUR CHANCELLOR

Congratulations, graduates!

What a joy it is to celebrate this moment with you. Reaching convocation is no small feat. It reflects dedication, resilience, and a willingness to grow in ways that will stay with you long after today.

I first came to Trent as a student in 1966. Like you, I arrived with questions, aspirations, and a sense of possibility. Over the years, as an alumnus and then as Chancellor, I have seen firsthand how this place shapes people - not only in what they learn, but in how they think, engage with others, and contribute to the world.

There is something distinctive about a Trent education. It encourages you to look beyond the obvious, to draw connections others might miss, and to approach the world with both curiosity and compassion. Those qualities will serve you well wherever your path leads.

Now, as I conclude my time as the 12th Chancellor of my beloved university, I do so knowing that I will always remain, most proudly, a member of Trent's alumni community, just like you. Today, you join a community that extends far beyond our campuses: a network of graduates who carry forward the values of this University in meaningful ways. You are now part of that shared story.

Take pride in all that you have accomplished and have confidence in what lies ahead. Your time at Trent has prepared you not only to succeed, but to make a difference - in your communities, your professions, and the wider world.

Wherever life takes you next, know that a part of Trent goes with you, and that you will always have a home here.

Congratulations, and enjoy every moment of this celebration.

Dr. Stephen Stohn '66

Chancellor

With his appointment as president and vice chancellor of Nipissing University, he became one of the first Indigenous presidents of a Canadian public university, advancing inclusive approaches to higher education. DeGagné also held the position of president and CEO of Indspire, Canada's largest Indigenous-led charity, overseeing national programs that support and invest in First Nations, Inuit, and Métis students. His leadership has been recognized through numerous honours, including the Order of Canada and the Order of Ontario, and the Indspire Award for Public Service.

INTRODUCING TRENT'S 13TH CHANCELLOR-DESIGNATE

ZABEEN HIRJI '25 (hon)

Honorary Doctor of Laws (LL.D.)
Chancellor-designate, Trent University

Zabeen Hirji '25 (hon), O. Ont., M.S.M., is Trent University's 13th Chancellor-designate, beginning her three-year term on July 1, 2026. One of Canada's most influential voices on the future of work and human potential, she is a celebrated business executive and national advocate for inclusive leadership and opportunity.

A trailblazer in corporate Canada, Zabeen spent more than 40 years at the Royal Bank of Canada, serving as Chief Human Resources Officer and as a member of the Group Executive Committee - the first South Asian woman to reach the C-suite of a TSX-100 company. Her leadership helped shape national conversations on equity, diversity, and inclusion, as well as the evolving nature of work in an increasingly complex world.

Today, she is focused on what she describes as her "Purposeful Third Act," advising leaders across business, government, higher education, and the not-for-profit sector while working to unlock human potential and advance inclusive prosperity. Her lived experience immigrating to Canada from Tanzania and beginning her career as a bank teller, continues to inform her belief that talent is everywhere and opportunity must be accessible to all.

Zabeen's contributions have been widely recognized through numerous honours, including the Order of Ontario, the Governor General's Meritorious Service Medal, and Trent University's highest distinction, an honorary Doctor of Laws.
