

49TH ANNUAL

ELDERS & TRADITIONAL PEOPLES GATHERING ECHOING OUR ANCESTORS

NOVEMBER 7-9TH 2025

Autumn Peltier

An Anishinaabe water-rights advocate from Wiikwemikoong Unceded Territory. Autumn Peltier is a world-renowned water-rights advocate and a leading global youth environmental activist. In 2019, Peltier was appointed Chief Water Commissioner by the Anishinabek Nation and has brought the fight for clean drinking water on First Nations reserves all the way to the United Nations. For her activism, Peltier was nominated for the International Children's Peace Prize in 2017, 2018 and 2019.