

TEACHING ENGLISH AS A FOREIGN LANGUAGE POSTGRADUATE CERTIFICATE

ADD A GLOBAL PERSPECTIVE TO YOUR TEACHING PORTFOLIO

Teach English as a foreign language abroad or online. Hone your English language skills while adding a Canadian credential in professional teacher training to your professional portfolio. This program offers the flexibility you need while you focus on your career – study online or in-person, full-time or part-time from anywhere in the world! Benefit from diverse perspectives and a curated set of courses presented in our global classroom.

Thinking of entering a corporate environment? Trent University's Postgraduate Certificate in Teaching English as a Foreign Language program integrates courses in Linguistics, Education, and English for Academic and Professional Purposes, resulting in a strong theoretical framework and practical technical skills development.

The program also provides opportunities to observe ESL expert instructors and apply the concepts and skills learned to local learning environments – from traditional classroom to alternative learning settings.

THE TRENT-ESL ADVANTAGE

- Step up your professional development with a program designed for non-native ESL teachers
- Gain a credential from a Canadian university
- Flexibility for busy professionals – study in-person / online, full- or part-time
- Content and language integrated learning (CLIL)
- Structured lessons, taught by highly qualified and experienced faculty
- Accredited Languages Canada member program (Trent-ESL)
- Engage with fellow ESL teachers from around the world as you build hands-on, practical skills to advance English language teaching
- Take a career further with a successful program completion may lead to admission to Graduate Diploma in Educational and Community Leadership in Trent's distinguished School of Education

ADMISSION REQUIREMENTS

- Degree from an accredited university
- Satisfaction of English Language Requirement (IELTS 6.0 or more)

ENTRY TERMS 2022

- January 2022
- May 2022
- September 2022

COURSE OVERVIEW

The Teaching English as a Foreign Language Postgraduate Certificate integrates the teachings from three distinct academic disciplines for a powerful learning and professional development experience that enhances your language teaching practice with students from early childhood to adult learners. The program features the following five credits / 10 courses:

TRENT-ESL COURSES (1.0 CREDIT)

- Language Development and Pedagogy for ESL Teachers I
- Language Development and Pedagogy for ESL Teachers II

EDUCATION COURSES (2.0 CREDITS):

- Cultural and Linguistic Diversity (CLD) International Education and International
- Teaching (Primary/Junior and Intermediate/Senior)
- Modelling Digital Citizenship through Technology and Social Media Use in the Classroom
- Issues in Planning, Assessment and Evaluation (Primary/Junior and Intermediate/Senior)

LINGUISTICS COURSES (2.0 CREDITS):

- Phonology
- Morphology
- Phonetics
- Foreign Language Acquisition: Theory, Methods, and Practice

TUITION

$18,200 (CAD) per year*

* Tuition rates are subject to change

"The Trent TEFL Postgraduate Certificate addresses the importance for English teachers around the world to examine their own language development in the context of teaching language, and instilling the value of cultural understanding as teachers and foreign language speakers of English."

Cath D'Amico, MA
Director, Trent International

TAKE YOUR TEACHING CAREER TO THE NEXT LEVEL

Why not take your education (and career) a step further and also pursue a postgraduate certificate in Human Resource Management, Marketing & Entrepreneurship or Business: Human Resources, Marketing and Entrepreneurship? Great options for teachers interested in leadership role.

By stacking two programs, students will also acquire a postgraduate work permit to remain in Canada and work upon completion.

Apply Now

trentu.ca/intl/apply

1-705-748-1314

international@trentu.ca

trentu.ca/futurestudents/teachesl

TRENT
UNIVERSITY