

Trent University (Durham campus) invites applications for a tenure track appointment in the School of Business at the rank of Assistant Professor, beginning July 1, 2021, subject to budgetary approval.

Applicants must have a doctoral degree (or be close to completion by the date of appointment) in marketing with specialization in logistics and supply chain management. The successful candidate is expected to teach and conduct high quality research in marketing and supply chain management. The successful applicant will be able to demonstrate excellence in teaching at different undergraduate levels, a willingness to develop challenging and innovative approaches to teaching, as well as an ability to work closely with colleagues and students. Experience with online or hybrid teaching styles will be considered a strong asset.

The successful candidate will be engaged with the School of Business and the newly established program in Logistics and Supply Chain Management. The LSCM program will have its first students entering fall 2021. The candidate will also assume administrative duties for managing the new program. Those duties will be very light initially, but will increase as the program fills over time.

Please send electronic application packages (PDF format only), including a letter of application, curriculum vitae (including confirmation to legally work in Canada), a teaching portfolio (including a summary of teaching evaluations), samples of research, and the names of three references who have been asked to send confidential letters of assessment, to: admnjobs@trentu.ca. The email subject line must include the term "Marketing Durham" or risk being filtered as junk mail.

Review of applications will begin on June 2, 2021 and applications will be accepted until the position is filled.

The School of Business offers an engaged and pedagogically innovative approach to undergraduate business education in Trent University's highly regarded liberal arts and science environment. Members of the School have a strong commitment to classroom excellence, community engagement, and research. Information about the School and Trent University may be obtained by consulting the School's website at <http://www.trentu.ca/business/> or by contacting Dr. Byron Lew, Director at blew@trentu.ca.

Trent University is actively committed to creating a diverse and inclusive campus community and encourages applications from all qualified candidates. Trent University offers accommodation for applicants with disabilities in its recruitment processes. If you require accommodation during the recruitment process or require an accessible version of a document/publication, please contact schoolofbusiness@trentu.ca.

All qualified candidates are encouraged to apply; however, Canadian citizens and permanent residents will be given priority.
