

Limited Term Appointment - Trent/Fleming School of Nursing

Trent University invites applications for a limited term position (LTA) at the rank of Assistant Professor in the Trent/Fleming School of Nursing. The position will be located at the beautiful Symons campus in Peterborough, which is on a direct GO route and a 90-minute drive from Toronto. The TFSON offers a collaborative and compressed Bachelor of Science in Nursing program, a Master of Science in Nursing program in Professional Practice Leadership jointly with Ontario Tech University, and a Graduate Diploma in Mental Health and Addictions Nursing. The duration of the appointment will range between one and three years and may commence as early as May 1, 2023, subject to budgetary approval. There may be opportunity for a part-time appointment.

The successful candidate will possess the requisite knowledge and expertise to teach in one or more of the following areas: pathophysiology, pharmacology, critical care nursing, chronic care nursing, and homecare. We are seeking an exceptional candidate who can effectively translate their knowledge to nursing students in ways that both ground and inspire new nurses to provide exceptional nursing care. Experience in providing clinical-student supervision will also be considered an asset.

The successful candidate will have a completed (or close to completed) doctorate in nursing or a related discipline. Preference will be given to candidates with at least one completed graduate degree in nursing. LTA faculty may be expected to teach a portion of their course load in the summer. As with other faculty positions, the successful candidate will contribute to the service needs of the School, University, community, and profession, as appropriate. Applicants for this position will be Registered Nurses (General or Extended Class) who are eligible to practice with no restrictions with the College of Nurses of Ontario.

Applicants should submit a curriculum vitae, the names of three referees, and any other supporting materials to Dr. Hugo Lehmann, Acting Dean, Trent/Fleming School of Nursing, Trent University, Peterborough, ON K9J 7B8; nursingadmin@trentu.ca. Only electronic submissions will be accepted. The review of applicants will begin March 1, 2023, and applications will be accepted until the position is filled. Information about Trent and the Trent/Fleming School of Nursing can be found on our website at: <https://www.trentu.ca/nursing/overview.php>.

Trent University is committed to creating a diverse and inclusive campus community. All qualified candidates are encouraged to apply; however, Canadian citizens and permanent residents will be given priority. Preference will be given to candidates from underrepresented groups including women, Indigenous People (First Nations, Inuit and Métis), persons with disabilities, members of visible minorities or racialized groups and LGBTQ2+ people.

Trent University offers accommodation for applicants with disabilities in its recruitment processes. If you require accommodation during the recruitment process or require an accessible version of a document/publication, please contact Dr. Hugo Lehmann (hugolehmann@trentu.ca).
