

SCHOOL OF BUSINESS – Tenure Track Position, Assistant Professor

Trent University invites applications for a tenure track faculty position in the School of Business at the rank of Assistant Professor, to start July 1, 2020, subject to budgetary approval. Trent University is a top-ranked primarily undergraduate school with a record of excellence in both teaching and research.

Teaching responsibilities will cover at least two areas from among Management, Organizational Behaviour/Human Resource Management, Strategy, or Entrepreneurship. The successful candidate must have a PhD and will demonstrate excellence or clear promise of excellence in research and teaching. Candidates must have excellent oral communication, written communication and interpersonal skills. The School envisions the successful candidate being able to teach introductory courses as well as upper-year courses in their areas of specialization. The successful candidate will have aspirations for collegiality, community and/or professional engagement, as well as engaged scholarship.

The School of Business offers an engaged and pedagogically innovative approach to undergraduate business education in Trent University's highly regarded liberal arts and science environment. Members of the School of Business have a strong commitment to classroom excellence, community engagement, and research. Information about the School of Business and Trent University may be obtained by consulting the School of Business website at <http://www.trentu.ca/business> or by contacting the Acting Director, Dr. Byron Lew, blew@trentu.ca or 705-748-1011 X7369.

Please send electronic applications, including a letter of application, curriculum vitae (including confirmation to legally work in Canada), a teaching portfolio (including a summary of teaching evaluations), samples of research, and the names of three references who have been asked to send confidential letters of assessment, to: admnjobs@trentu.ca.

Review of applications will begin on November 4, 2019, and applications will be accepted until the position is filled.

Trent University is actively committed to creating a diverse and inclusive campus community and encourages applications from all qualified candidates. Trent University offers accommodation for applicants with disabilities in its recruitment processes. If you require accommodation during the recruitment process, or require an accessible version of a document/publication, please contact blew@trentu.ca

All qualified candidates are encouraged to apply; however, Canadian citizens and permanent residents will be given priority.
