

INDG 3113Y Indigenous Peoples Cultures and Resistance in Mexico

6 Week Online Course, including
3 weeks in Mexico
May 2023

No course
prerequisites required

Cost: tuition for one full Trent credit + program fee TBA

Interested?

Contact us by email at:
dmccaskill@trentu.ca

Study in Mexico

In-Person Information Session

January 26th at 7:00 PM

Hosted by:

Don McCaskill

All Students Welcome!

Olive Dickason Reading Room 320

Chenie Wenjack School of Indigenous Studies - Gzowski College

Or by Zoom, Register:

tinyurl.com/Summer-in-Mexico

Become familiar with the global debate on current trends in international development in reference to Indigenous cultures. Explore the roots of Indigenous resistance to current US/Mexican policy. Become acquainted with grassroots initiatives to strengthen Indigenous culture. Rethink Western assumptions about human development.

MEXICO FIELD PROGRAM

SUMMER 2023

INDG 3113Y Indigenous Peoples Cultures and Resistance in Mexico

Become familiar with the global debate on current trends in international development in reference to Indigenous cultures. Explore the roots of Indigenous resistance to current US/Mexican policy. Become acquainted with grassroots initiatives to strengthen Indigenous culture. Rethink Western assumptions about human development.

Students travel to Oaxaca City and Indigenous villages, Oaxaca and Mexico City.

6 week on-line course
3 weeks in Mexico

.....

Cost: tuition for one full
Trent credit + program fee
TBA.

.....

Program fee includes:
flights, in-country
transportation, field
trips, accommodations,
and almost all meals.

.....

No course prerequisites
required

.....

Students may be eligible for OSAP, Government
funding, Universities Canada Funding and Study Abroad Bursaries

.....

Interested?

Contact us by email:
dmccaskill@trentu.ca

