CEREMONIAL TRADITIONS AT TRENT CONVOCATION

For more information visit trentu.ca/convocation

Land Acknowledgement

We respectfully acknowledge that we are on the treaty and traditional territory of the Mississauga Anishinaabeg. We offer our gratitude to First Peoples for their care for, and teachings about, our earth and our relations. May we honour those teachings.

The Eagle Staff

The Eagle Staff, consisting of eagle feathers on a long wooden staff, represents the strength and honour of Indigenous Peoples. The eagle feather represents the highest honour that can be bestowed upon an Individual.

The Water Carrier

Water (Nibi) is the most sustaining gift of our Mother the Earth and is the giver of life. In Anishinaabe tradition, women have a special responsibility to care for and ensure that water can continue to provide for the health of our planet and ourselves.

The Condolence Cane

The Condolence Cane reflects the Peacemaker's mission to put an end to war and create unity by bringing good minds together to work for a peace that resulted in the founding of the Haudenosaunee Confederacy. Carved by the late Chief Jake Thomas, it was a gift to Trent from the Indigenous Education Council.

The Honour Song

In accordance with Indigenous tradition, an honour song will be performed for the graduating class upon the conclusion of the awarding of degrees and diplomas. Thank you to Unity and the Michi-Saagiig Manoomin for their performances.

Academic Regalia

Trent's undergraduate and Master's gowns are uniquely dark green. The colour on the hoods represents the degree being conferred on the graduand. Ph.D. regalia is scarlet with green, gold, and white trim.

Recessional Music

The songs played at the end of the ceremony were suggested and chosen by the graduating students to celebrate their "I did it!" moment as they walk off the stage.

GRADUATES 2023 | TRENT UNIVERSITY PETERBOROUGH

Thank you!

Trent's convocation ceremonies would not be possible without the assistance of more than 100 staff, alumni, retirees, students, and faculty. They ensure everything runs smoothly, so you and your graduate can enjoy the moment. Thank you to pipers: Rev. Jamie York '72 in Peterborough and Kirk Hill in Durham. A huge thank you to Blueboxing at Trent from Community Living in Peterborough, who spend hours cleaning and filling the water bottles given to graduands in Peterborough because the ceremonies are outdoors in the heat.

Photos

The stage photo of your graduate is taken by Miranda Studios and will be available for purchase a week after the ceremony at clients.mirandastudios.ca, using the access code emailed to your graduate. Please email info@mirandastudios.ca if you have further questions.

Note: convocation is a public event that is recorded through video and photography. The ceremonies are live streamed and available on the website afterward. Images and recordings may be used to promote Trent.
